

Fantasy Homes

Contemporary home on Loes Way features distinctive arched window with views of the valley and city lights.

Gated private road leads to S. J. home with flair

WHAT: Two-story contemporary built in 2005; 18,731-square-foot lot; 3,545 square feet; five bedrooms, 3 ½ baths; kitchen with granite counters and island, breakfast nook; master bedroom with corner spa; dual-pane arched windows; valley and city-lights views; three-car garage.

WHERE: 3460 Loes Way, San Jose. Open today 1 to 4 p.m.

ASKING: $1.65 million

BROKER: Jeff Schacher, (408) 383-4807, Coldwell Banker

DETAILS: A private drive leads to one of only three houses in this gated enclave in the hills above San Jose.

Arched windows and alcoves are the dominant themes of this contemporary house with a Mediterranean flair. Step into the formal entry onto travertine floors under a dramatic chandelier. On one side is the dining room with accent lighting and an oversized arched window looking out on a beautiful old weathered oak. On the other is the living room with 11-foot ceilings, a fireplace with a slate hearth and mantel, and a sliding glass door opening onto a 20-by-22-foot terrace.

The master bedroom has large arched windows on three sides, a mature pepper tree just outside, a view of downtown San Jose and a spa in the corner. The master bath features gleaming dual vanities and mirrors, slate flooring and a large walk-in closet. Downstairs, three bedrooms offer ample opportunity to indulge your individuality: media room, artist studio, exercise room or, of course, bedrooms.